The assigned indigenous public defender, Bao Ju, initially treats the case with disdain. His team includes Jin Ping, a promising individual with a manipulative father, and Leena, an Indonesian nurse facing harassment from her employer. Together, they unite to translate for and defend the accused murderer.

As Bao Ju's team delves deeper, they uncover evidence that points to Zhen Xiong, the owner of a fishery group, being involved. The situation becomes more dire with witness collusion, a biased judge, and disagreements surrounding mental evaluation. Bao Ju turns to his former lover Ling Qiu, the Minister of Justice, for assistance. Amidst the legal turmoil, Jin Ping and Leena's relationship blossoms.

The team locates a crucial witness, Suprianto, but he vanishes after receiving death threats. Battling a series of setbacks, Bao Ju loses the case.
